1. VICE CHANCELLOR’s MESSAGE

Maharashtra National Law University Mumbai started its first academic journey on 1st August 2015. The courses of BA.,LL.B(Hons.) five years integrated program and one year LL.M program in Legal Pedagogy and Research are being offered. The first batch of 61 undergraduate students and 08 post-graduate students were selected by a stringent admission test open to all India.

The University planned for a very intensive curriculum with a cooperative teaching in Law subjects, accordingly the classes are scheduled on a five day week basis at the temporarily arranged facility of Tata Institute of Social Sciences Campus in Deonar, Mumbai. Saturdays and Sundays are planned for guest and visiting faculty from Mumbai Bar, Bench and other legal academia. Fridays are utilised for conducting field visits and to undertake the project assignment field related work.

As per the BCI and UGC norms the courses, the teaching scheme and learning process are organised. The courses are designed on the CBCS model as well with the stipulation of minimum of 15 class and contact hours of teaching per credit. Efforts have been taken to always remain beyond compliance with regard to regulatory bodies of the University system. The teaching and learning process are integrated to a continuous system of test, assignments, examination and evaluation. The semester pattern of study has inbuilt with mandatory project assignment, mid-semester, snap test, and end-semester examinations. Each semester is grounded with at least 20 credits. The courses are cushioned with guest faculty inputs to variants of pedagogy and lectures. The semester is scheduled to be complete by Second week of December 2015.

As a part of the academic programme the students after taking their first semester examination, will have to undergo internship for training with mutually organized offices of registered NGOs, for two weeks. After brief vacation, the students will join for the second semester with renewed zeal in the New Year 2016.

The calendar for the second semester is planned to commence on 18.01.2016. There will be total of 117 days semester, which includes 16 Sundays and 7 public holidays. There shall be mandatory 72 days classes, 09 days for guest lectures, 09 days for conduct of examinations and 4 days for student activities. The summer vacation commences from 15th May to 2nd
July 2016. During summer vacations the students will choose to go to another internship for about four weeks.

The handbook would provide firsthand information about its academic activities and the scheme of the student learning process. This is the first handbook with first batch of faculty and its first batch of students. Attempt has been made to reach to its users as transparently and user-friendly as possible.

Prof. (Dr.) Bhavani Prasad Panda
2. ABOUT MNLU MUMBAI

The Maharashtra National Law University Act (ACT VI of 2014) was promulgated, after having received the assent of the Governor of Maharashtra, by a Notification in the Maharashtra Government Gazette, on 20 March 2014. As per the Schedule to the Act, there shall be three National Law Universities in Maharashtra, having headquarters at Mumbai, Aurangabad and Nagpur. Accordingly, the first of these Universities, namely Maharashtra National Law University Mumbai was established and the founding Vice-Chancellor was appointed, on 10 October 2014. The universities at Aurangabad and Nagpur will be established shortly.

Hon’ble Mr. Justice F M Ibrahim Kalifulla, Judge, Supreme Court of India is the Chancellor of the University. Professor (Dr.) Bhavani Prasad Panda is its first Vice-Chancellor.

The University currently offers two academic programmes, namely, Five-Year Integrated B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) and One-Year LL.M. in Legal Pedagogy and Research. First batch of students were selected through a national level admission test, MNLUAT 2015. Only the brightest among the 3000 odd applicants could secure admission to 61 undergraduate and 8 postgraduate seats.

Academic programmes of the University commenced from 1 August 2015 with the orientation of students. This was followed by regular classes from the very next day. The University does not have a campus of its own yet. It is functioning from the prestigious Tata Institute of Social Sciences premises by availing the facilities on cost-sharing basis. Students of MNLU Mumbai have thus the added advantage of imbibing the strong academic culture of TISS Mumbai alongside promoting the good name of their own.

2.1 Object

The object of the University is to advance and disseminate learning and knowledge of law and legal processes and their role in national development, to develop in the students and research scholars a sense of responsibility, to serve society in the field of law by developing skills in regard to advocacy, legal services, legislation, law reforms and the like, to organize lectures, seminars, symposia and conferences to promote legal knowledge and to make law and legal processes efficient instruments of social development, to hold examinations and confer degrees and other academic distinctions, and to do all such things as are incidental, necessary or conducive to the attainment of all or any of the objects of the University.

2.2 Mission
“Law is one of the cherished components of intellectual inheritance of civilization.” As such, our principal mission is to work for the perseverance of those vital tenets, inculcate a sense of belongingness to the enshrined values; and through the process of legal pedagogy contribute to the richness of the inheritance. In the endeavour, MNLU Mumbai shall strive to nurture the noble callings of justice and law reforms and to take positions as change-agents that India needs today and stay prepared for tomorrow and will stay alert to justice.

2.3 Vision
Today and for tomorrow, India needs to garner a cadre of young intellects of law, with ethical commitments to justice, not only to administer, govern and minister but also to craft the envisioned trajectories of change converging into the valued harmony and purpose of human life and society in the scheme of global conglomerate.

2.4 Motto
Dharma Tatparta
[Preparedness to Uphold Dharma]

7.4 Curricular and Extra-Curricular Activities
MNLU Mumbai is committed to providing an atmosphere in which academic excellence is the foremost priority for students. But the university also believes that what is learned from participation in extra-curricular activities is a necessary complement of academic training. In line with this view MNLU Mumbai promotes extra-curricular participation and has constituted various committees under the aigés of Student Bar Council. These committees enable students to pursue individual interests and take part in various literary, cultural and recreational activities throughout the academic year.

Moot Courts, Debates, Model United Nation, Conferences, Guest Lectures etc. are a routine activity at MNLU Mumbai. We are not stopping here, our students also participate in various cultural activities and sport competitions.

7.5 Remedial Coaching
In order to make sure that learning is happening and all the students understand what is taught in the classes, the university has kept one Remedial Class each working day. The attendance is optional in these classes. The previous course work is revised in a simple and lucid language so that a student understands it with ease.

8. HOSTEL FACILITY

MNLU Mumbai is a fully residential university. We have rented accommodation at Building No.2 Apna Vatan Colony and Paras Building, Green Acres, Nr. Deonar Bus Depot, Chembur. The hostels are separate for both boys and girls with all the facilities required. The Dining Halls facility is being shared with TISS Campus which is at a 5 min walking distance from the hostel. Security guards have also been provided. ApnaVatan (First Floor) and Paras Building is meant for Boys only. There is one caretaker to look after the premises and needs of the students. Two male superintendents are also there to supervise the boys hostel.

ApnaVatan (Second and Third Floor) is restricted for Girls only. A female caretaker has been appointed to take care of the premises and needs of the students. Two female superintendents are also there to supervise the girls hostel.

9. In the interests of residents’ privacy, external/internal personnel attending to the repairs of personal computers in residents’ room will be permitted between 10.00am to 7.00 pm only. Any such male personnel will be permitted into the Ladies hostel only in the presence of a women hostel attendant.

10. Students are required to hand over charge of their room keys and furniture to the wardens or Superintendents of Hostel, before leaving for vacation. Otherwise, they will be charged Rs.100/- per day for the entire duration of vacation.

11. Similarly, the cupboards in the room are provided with key. This key has to be returned at the time of vacating the hostel. If a key is lost and/or if the lock is replaced with a new one, the cost of replacement or repair will be recovered from the student. The cupboard and locker keys lost by the hostel residents in Hostel will be charged Rs. 500/- for each key and any cupboard or drawer keys lost in the hostels will be charged Rs.150/- per key.

12. If a student is expecting to be absent from the hostel for more than three days due to internship, Block Field Work, Data Collection etc. the Superintendent of Hostels should be informed before proceeding. The students’ lien on their rooms will be maintained in such cases during the period of their absence, i.e., they will be re-allocated the same room on their return.

13. During vacations, students are required to store their belonging in the place reserved for the purpose and hand over keys to Superintendents of Hostels or other officials concerned before proceeding on vacation. The room may be allotted to guest/ seminar participants or used for other Institute purposes during the vacation period. If the room is found locked during vacations it will be forcibly opened, if needed, and the cost will be recovered from the student concerned along with a penalty of Rs.250/-

14. If students do not vacate room during vacations and do not store belongings as per instructions in the place reserved for this purpose, the university reserves the right to levy the charges as applicable or move the belongings and store the same in a safe place to make the room usable for other purposes and University will not be responsible for any inadvertent damage, breakage or loss.

15. If any resident is expected to be absent from the hostel for an entire semester for internship, fieldwork, etc. he/she is required to pay the hostel charges for the semester in order to retain the hostel seat.

16. No tenancy shall be created by occupation or sue of hostel rooms, which is merely allotted by the university under the rules and regulations and it reserves the right to allot the rooms to any one during vacations as per requirement and the students will not be consulted for the same.

17. Lights and fan should be switched off when not required and when leaving the room. If the fans and lights are found switched on, the master switch outside the room will be switched off. In multi-seated rooms, the lights in the room should be switched off by 11.00 pm and anyone studying can use table lamps, so as not disturb others.

18. Electric appliances such as a tea kettle, electric heater, induction cooker, electric iron, etc. are NOT allowed in the hostel rooms. Only keeping a reading lamp is allowed. If any hostel resident is found to be using such appliances in his/her room, strict disciplinary action will be taken, including confiscation of the appliances, levying penalty, expulsion from Hostel, or combination thereof.

19. Cooking in hostel rooms is strictly prohibited. If found, strict disciplinary action will be taken against the hostel resident, including levying a penalty or expulsion from the hostel or a combination of both.

20. Smoking, storing or consuming alcohol including beer, narcotics/intoxicating substances and other items prohibited by law within the campus are serious offence, which attracts penalty, expulsion from hostel/ university or other disciplinary or legal actions as per the recommendations of the Empowered Committee.
21. If empty bottles of alcoholic drinks, remnants of any other intoxicating substances or cigarettes are found in the hostel rooms, all the members in the room will be exonerated for the first time offence. Repeated offences will lead to expulsion from the hostel. Thus, it is in the interest of all occupying the hostel rooms and to ensure that all residents follow these rules and any violation by others should be reported to the Superintendent of hostels immediately.

22. Shoe rack or any other furniture should not be kept in the corridor. If this is done, the hostel resident will be asked to keep it back in his/her room or else will be removed by the Hostel staff. No plants/flower pots should be kept in the room or corridors.

23. University/Hostel authorities reserve the right to conduct surprise checks of all areas in the hostels to ensure compliance to the hostel rules.

24. Disciplinary action will be taken against those entering the campus after having consumed any alcoholic drinks or other narcotic substances and behaving in a disorderly manner.

25. All the rules above are to be seriously observed and those students found violating these rules will be expelled from the hostel immediately in case of hostel residence and appropriate disciplinary action will be taken against non-residents, which may include expulsion from the university. On recommendation of the Empowered Committee, the university reserves the right to inform the parents of the student concerned about the offences / violations and the resultant disciplinary action taken.

Avoiding Disturbance to Others and Observance of Quiet Period

The time from 10.00pm to 6.00am is maintained as quiet period in the hostels to facilitate private study or rest. Students should not play loud music on mobiles, computers, laptops, other gadgets or talk loudly, shout, sing, or make any other noise during this period. Quiet period will also be maintained on the campus. Even at other times, students are advised to play musical instruments at low volume or not to play them at all if others object to it due to disturbance caused to them. Those who occupy multi-and double-seated rooms are particularly advised not to cause disturbance to other occupants in the room.

Valuable Articles

Students are advised not to keep large amounts of money and/ or valuable articles in their rooms. The University will not take responsibility for the loss of money and/ or property lost due to the negligence of the hostel residents. All students are provided with cupboard and keys for safekeeping of their belongings in the room/hall.

Any loss or theft of any belongings should be reported to the Superintendent of hostels and at the earliest. If any hostel residents are found guilty of theft, they will be asked to leave the hostel immediately and other disciplinary or legal measures will be initiated against them.

Rules related to Late Night Movement

Your safety is of prime concern to the University. It is important to be aware of the safety hazards of movement outside the campus late in the night and thus, as far as possible try to get back to your place of residence at the earliest. It is advisable to move in groups rather than alone for your own safety. Following rules for movement outside the campus at night have been formulated for your safety and all are required to strictly follow the same.

All Hostel residents should return to Hostels before 11.00pm. No hostel resident will leave the campus between 11.00pm and 6.00am, except for travelling out of Mumbai with prior permission or for medical emergencies. In case of travel outside Mumbai, it is essential to inform the Superintendents/Warden and Dining Hall at least 2 days in advance.

- All students residing in off campus hostels are expected to leave the campus before 11pm. You must complete your studies, group work and other activities prior to 11pm. You will be able to access online library resources from your place of residence.
- The University reserves all rights to regulate night movement of the students for their safety and security.

Students may approach Superintendents/ Warden for

- Sanction of leave of absence from the hostel.
- Problems and issues related to the allotted room and hostel amenities and those related to room-mates or other hostel residents.
- Disciplinary issues.
- Permission to conduct any group celebration in the hostel such as Hostel Day, etc.
- Personal issues and to seek advise/ guidance to address those issues.
- Illness and health related issues.
Please keep in mind that your Superintendents/Warden is busy teacher and researcher and has got a family of her/his own. So please visit/ call the Superintendents warden to seek permission/ advice during office hours, and not in the middle of the night.

Students may approach the Superintendents of Hostels for support related to
1. Maintenance problems/issues related to allotted rooms and common facilities.
2. Allotment of room during vacation and other non-academic periods.
3. Approval to bring in and take out computers.
4. Make any charges, within the allotted rooms, fix electrical. Electric gadgets.
5. Health problems, Hospitalization and related support.
6. Any other issues of the students that require urgent attention.

Hostel Attendants will provide the following services:
1. Maintain cleanliness of hostel rooms and facilities.
2. Keep vigil on hostel and students’ property, and support guests and visitors.
3. Daily cleaning activities will be carried out at the time fixed in consultation with hostel representatives.
4. Maintain daily cleaning chart signed by students representatives for the hostel/ floor
5. Monitor the entry of Visitors, including outside computer repairing persons into hostels and keep the Superintendents of Hostels informed.

Student Hostel Representatives are expected to:
• Represent and interact with Superintendents/Warden of Hostels on hostel matters in consultation with other students, including day to day maintenance, students concerns, emergencies keeping rooms in good condition, use of electricity, computer facilities, etc.
• Monitor the floor wise monthly cleaning schedule, which will be displayed on the hostel notice boards.
• Maintain the first aid kit. Keep the Superintendents of Hostels informed about issues that require urgent attention.
9. HEALTH CARE FACILITIES
A student falling ill should inform the concerned Warden/Superintendent (Hostels) immediately. The University shares the services of three doctors who attend to the students six days a week in association with TISS. In case of an emergency, the Hostel Warden may telephone the Doctor and request him/her to attend the student, provided that the student is not under the treatment of another medical practitioner. The student will pay for any out of turn visit made by the Doctor. In case of infectious diseases and other medical emergencies, the University may admit the student to a hospital on the recommendation of the University/TISS Doctor. A first-aid kit is available with all the Hostel Representatives, Wardens, Security (Main Gate) and Facility Services. The students are expected to contact the above in the case of an emergency. In case of medical emergency/necessity, students will contact the Warden/Section Officer (Hostels)/ Security/person in-charge of vehicle who will arrange for a University vehicle. Students will not leave on their own without information.

9.1 TISS Health Centre
Three Medical Officers visit the TISS Campus where MNLU Mumbai is located — one every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 4.00-6.00 p.m., the second every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday from 4.30-6.30 p.m., and the third every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday from 11.00 am-1.00 pm. Two medical officers are General Physicians and the third is a Gynaecologist. The Institute provides free medical consultation services only. The programme is coordinated by the Coordinator (Medical and Counselling Services), who is a faculty member of the Institute.

9.2 Health Insurance
MNLU Mumbai has obtained Medical Insurance for Students. This will cover Hospitalisation cover uptoRs 1 lac (cashless facility) and Accidental death. The policy shall pay for hospitalisation expenses for medical/surgical treatment at designated Nursing Home/Hospitals in India as an In-patient. In-patient means Hospitalisation is a must for 24 hours. Out-patient department (OPD) cover is also available for Rs 2500/-. The preferred hospitals in close proximity to TISS campus are Joy Hospital-Chembur and Sethia Hospital-Chembur. Even otherwise, students can avail the Medical Centre in TISS for free consultation with doctor.
9.3 Counselling Services

The services of one full-time counsellor and four part-time counsellors are provided by the TISS and can be shared by MNLU Mumbai students also. The full-time counsellor is available between 12.00-8.00 p.m. from Monday to Friday. The part-time counsellors are available between 4.00-8.00 p.m. on all days, except Sundays. They can be contacted at 5612 (ext.). The counsellors help the students in their day-to-day concerns and also enhance their overall functioning. A senior faculty member from TISS coordinates the Medical and Counselling services.

10. DISCIPLINE

Students admitted to the hostels will abide by the hostel rules. Failure to abide by the rules will result in the expulsion of such students from the hostel. Students/Day Scholars/ hostellers found smoking, loitering, misbehaving and/or breaking any rule of the Hostel/ MNLU Mumbai/ TISS in any way shall invite strict disciplinary action against him/her. The authorities will also inform the parents about the same. To maintain the discipline, University authorities can conduct surprise checks of all areas in the hostel to ensure no alcohol and addictive narratives or any incriminating substance are stored on hostel premises.

10.1 Identity Card

In one’s own best interest, everyone must carry the University’s Identity Card at all times. It is mandatory for the students and scholars to carry the identity cards and produce whenever requested for the same by any authority of the University/ TISS. One must show the identity card to the Security at the gate, while entering the campus and whenever requested for. Loss of identity card should be reported to the concerned authorities and an application for a duplicate must be made to the Academic Section. A duplicate Identity Card will be issued on payment of Rs. 100/-.

10.2 Anti-Ragging Policy

The UGC framed Regulations on curbing the menace of ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009, in order to prohibit, prevent and eliminate the scourge of ragging in Indian Universities/ Colleges/Institutions. Ragging in any form is not allowed in the hostels. Students who infringe this rule will be expelled from the hostel immediately. Teasing and physical assault will result in the expulsion of the students from the hostel. The Institute reserves the right to ask a hostel resident to vacate the hostel with a notice of 24 hours for serious infringement of the above rules.

It is to be noted that the MNLU, Mumbai follows the orders of the Supreme Court of India with regard to curbing of ragging in the educational institutions. Any incidents are to be immediately brought to the attention of the Wardens, the Officer (Hostels) and the Chairman Students’ Affairs. The telephone numbers of all the above are displayed on the Hostel Notice board.

An Anti-Ragging Committee shall be constituted as per the UGC mandates, to address the issues of Ragging. The names and contact numbers of all the committee members are also mentioned in the Circular issued on Anti-Ragging. The members of the committee (2015-16) will be constituted and notified soon after the academic session commences. The Anti-Ragging Committee will also make surprise visits of the hostels and the places where students stay outside the campus so as to curb ragging.

The Security in the TISS and MNLU Mumbai are instructed to keep a close watch on any kind of misconduct taking place in the campus and are directed to report to the Wardens/Chairman, Students’ Affairs/Vice-Chancellor in case of any such event.

10.3 Committee Against Sexual Harassment

With regard to the Supreme Court Judgment in the matter of Vishaka and others v. State of Rajasthan & others and the guidelines issued in 1997 following which the University Grants Commission (UGC) has issued circulars since 1998, to all the universities, advising them to establish a permanent cell and a committee and to develop guidelines to combat sexual harassment, violence against women and ragging at the universities and colleges.

Following is the composition of CASH.
